

User regulations for Ullensaker Library

Ullensaker Library makes information, learning and cultural expression available to everyone. The services of the library are free.

You need a library card to borrow library items. Everyone with a permanent address in Norway can get a library card by showing ID. Children can get a library card when they start school. All children under the age of 15 will need a parents' signature to get a card.

You can keep library items for 4 weeks, with the exception of DVDs (7 days) and language courses (6 weeks). You can renew most items, as long as it is not reserved for other users. If you do not return borrowed items on time, fees apply.

If the items you are looking for are not available, you can make a reservation.

We can also order items from other libraries for you to pick up at Ullensaker library. Other rules may apply, but in that case you will be informed.

You are responsible for all items borrowed on your library card. Damaged or lost items must be replaced.

Please notify the library if you have a new address, new contact information, or if you lose your library card. The owner of the library card may be held responsible for misuse of the card.

For institutions other user regulations apply.
